

Cesenatico- a small port village along the Adriatic coast!

Long beaches, breath-taking scenery and real warmth; all this you'll find here in Cesenatico! The small fishing village is situated along the Adriatic coast and it isn't a real touristic city like many others. The historic town is really worth seeing and offers a wonderful mixture between original flair during the day and evening pulsing life.

Look over the clam fishermen's shoulders or enjoy an Italian "latte macchiato" at one of the small coffee shops near the port: a lovely mix to make your holiday perfect!
