

Face to face with a world famous tenor

Andrea Bocelli has sung in theatres around the world but the emotions, one feels in his homeland are unique. For several years now, Lajatico, his birthplace, has been setting up an open-air stage for a concert which is even more fascinating through the sculptures of great artists. There are only one or two dates a year available, but it will be a concert that you will remember forever. Book your tickets until 26.02.18 for the concert on 30.07.2018!

Tuscany 2018

Program - 4 days

Day 1 - Arrival, check-in and evening meal in the hotel.

Day 2 - Leaving for Pisa after breakfast, where a town guide awaits us. Pisa is especially known for its architectural and artistic treasures and is often especially associated with the leaning tower and thus underestimated. For Pisa is above all a town with a lot of history and great architectural riches: it is more than just a famous tower. Of course, the Piazza dei Miracoli, with the Duomo, the Baptistery, the monumental cemetery and the leaning tower are among the things that you should definitely see. The walk continues along Via Santa Maria, one of the oldest streets in Pisa, to Piazza Cavalieri. We continue to Fauglia, where we visit a cheese factory. Founded over 50 years ago by two brothers, Pecorino, Ricotta and other cheeses are produced here. After a detailed tour, a rich tasting awaits you. Return to the hotel, dinner and overnight

Day 3 - Free-time in the morning. Early afternoon we travel to Lajatico. For generations the Bocelli family has been cultivating the soil here, at first for the rich noble family Corsini. Today the family business is about 20 hectares. Since 2000 wine is grown here - Bocelli wine. Nowadays brothers Alberto and Andrea take care of production. We are waiting for the Enoteca of Bocelli, where we will taste the famous wine with a rich snack. Before leaving, visit the Bocelli Private Museum.

Awaiting us is the Bocelli wine shop, where we will taste the famous wine with a rich snack. Before leaving, we visit the private Bocelli museum. Early evening we leave for the Teatro del Silenzio, where you can attend a unique concert. Enjoy the unique acoustics in a wonderful ambience.

Return to the hotel and overnight.

Day 4 - Return journey home after breakfast.

Program - 5 days

Day 1 - Arrival, check-in and evening meal in the hotel.

Day 2 - After breakfast departure for Pisa where the city guide awaits us. Pisa is above all famous for its architectural and artistic treasures, and most of all a city of great history and enormous architectural wealth: it is more than just its famous tower. Of course, the Piazza dei Miracoli, with the Duomo, the Baptisterium, the monumental cemetery and the leaning tower are all things that one must have seen. The walk continues from Via Santa Maria, one of the oldest streets in Pisa, to the Piazza Cavallieri. Continue to Fauglia, where we visit a cheese factory. Founded over 50 years ago by two brothers, it produces pecorino, ricotta and other cheeses. After a detailed tour, a rich tasting awaits you. Return to the hotel. Overnight stay and evening meal.

Day 3 - Depart after breakfast for Pistoia. The centre of the inner-city is the Cathedral Square with the Romanesque Cattedrale di San Zeno dating from the 13th century. In Pistoia, there are not only great sights and beautiful places - nature lovers too will get their money's worth. After the city tour we continue to a Vivaio, where you will partake in an aperitif between fragrant plants. In the early afternoon we drive to Montelupo Fiorentino. The world of Tuscan ceramics is diverse. It ranges from traditionally made and decorated plates, vases, jugs and cans to the products of a decidedly modern design. You will visit a manufactory which will allow you to get to know these creative crafts at close range. Return to the hotel. Overnight and dinner.

Day 4 - Morning free - Early afternoon we travel to Lajatico. For generations the Bocelli family have cultivated the earth here, at first for the rich, noble Corsini family. Today, the family business is approx. 120 ha. Since 2000, wine is also grown here - the Bocelli wine. Nowadays brothers Alberto and Andrea take care of the production. Awaiting us is the Bocelli wine shop, where we will taste the famous wine with a rich snack, with a visit to the private Bocelli museum. Early evening we leave for the Teatro del Silenzio, where you can attend a unique concert. Enjoy the unique acoustics in wonderful ambience. Return to the hotel and overnight stay.

Day 5 - Return journey home after breakfast.
